PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

1st. In Parts: each Part embracing as much matter as is contained in two volumes of the present editions of the Waverley Novels, which will be put at the unprecedented low price of THIRTY SEVEN AND A HALF CENTS.

2d. Two parts will appear each month; but should the publishers find the work to meet the patronage they anticipate, FOUR PARTS will be issued monthly.

3d. The whole will be completed in seven volumes, or forty eight parts.

The paper on which the above is now printing, has been made expressly for the purpose; the present parts may, therefore, be considered a fair specimen, in every respect, of the whole work; but, should dissatisfaction arise with any subscriber, owing to an inferior article being offered, he may discontinue at any time, and have the amount paid returned.

Note.—The publication of the first volume is deferred until the receipt of the Biography, Private Correspondence, and the New Edition of the Author's Poetical Works, with 'contemporary criticism—various readings—and correspondence with some of the most eminent persons of the time when the Poems first appeared,' now in the course of publication in England.

Volume 1 will be ornamented with an excellent Portrait of Sir Walter Scott.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPT. 26, 1833.

Bank of the United States.—The New York Commercial Advertiser, of Saturday last, says—

"The stock has fallen one and a half per cent. to day. The Government owns seven millions of the stock. Of course, the public loss on the value of its stock is ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS! The depreciation in the value of the whole stock of the Bank, this day, is FIVE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS!! Such is the madness of party.

☞In the whole course of our experience, we never saw the people of Wall street look so blue as they did this morning. It was not, in fact, believed by any body, that the President could be bro't to the perpetration of such a positive outrage upon the credit of the country, and the Brokers stood appalled, gazing upon one another in amazement, when they at last heard of the fact.

☞It has not, however, thus far been what is called "a hard day" in Wall street. The Branch has made no movement towards calling in its balances, and has discounted to its customers as usual."

New System of Colonization.—A correspondent of the Emancipator states, from the authority of the Secretary of the State Society, that this Society has devised a new plan for effecting the removal of the colored population to Africa.

"They have resolved to establish a Colony at Cape Palmas (the best location on the whole western coast of Africa.) The Colony will be entirely independent and irrespective in its operations of the general society, or the Liberia Colony. Entire abstinence from ardent spirits is to be the condition of admission to its privileges. It will colonize only the blacks of Maryland. It is desired that each State should thus singly take into its own hands the charge of colonizing its own population, without the aid of any commissioners like the general Society. The North is to take no part in the plans of any of the States, except that they may contribute when solicited by these States. The American Colonization Society will not be opposed by Maryland, but if this plan should be adopted, its operations will be chiefly unnecessary."

The last remark requires qualification. The meaning probably is, "its co-operation," not "its operation." The Maryland Society will carry on its business for its own benefit, with its own funds. The National Society will continue to act, as it has done, for the benefit of the country at large. This plan (of which we ascertained all the particulars some months since at New York) is called "a new system of colonization." In some of its minutæ it is new, but substantially it is only an amplification, with some undoubted improvements (the result of experience,) on the original plan. It is just such an amplification as the friends of the Colonial System most fondly and confidently anticipated; and, taken in connection with the recent unanimous declaration of the Maryland State Society, of their resolution to lend all their efforts to the abolition of Slavery in that State, it must certainly be regarded as among the most conclusive and encouraging proofs of the natural and powerful tendency of the Colonization scheme to an immense intrinsic growth, and to a corresponding influence, foreign and domestic, on the condition of the free colored people, the existence of Slavery, and the interests of the country at large. Maryland has begun the work nobly. Let every State which is tired of Slavery cast about for the means of following her example.—Bost. Mercant. Jour.

Caution.—A spurious 20 dollar note, on the Bank of Pittsburgh, was offered in this neighborhood a few days ago. It was the old plate of fives of that bank and had evidently been altered from a five to a twenty. Letter C. date, March 4th, 1829. —Blairsville Record, Sept. 25.

We heard it intimated, says the Baltimore Chronicle, that Mr. Duane would not resign his situation in the Cabinet, in consequence of the removal of the deposits, preferring to leave the responsibility and the odium of this breach of public faith, where it ought to be.—Poulson, Sept. 23.

Canal Tolls.—The tolls received by the collector in this place since the 9th inst. amount to upwards of FOURTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS! —Blairsville Record, Sept. 25.

Cotton Prospects.—Throughout the whole extent of the cotton growing States, the prospects of prosperity to the planter and farmer, are of the most cheering character. On every side the gladdening sound of a rise in the price of our staple commodity reaches the ear; and the same topic meets the eye in type upon the unfolding of almost every paper which we receive. This is animating to the industrious laborer—it is cheering to all—for upon the prosperity of the Agriculturalist depends the good condition of every branch of productive industry.—Huntsville Mercury.

Unfortunate Affair.—We regret to state the death of John K. Campbell, Esq., District Attorney of the United States, for the Middle District of Florida, who fell in a duel, fought on the 29th ult., with a merchant of Magnolia, by the name of George Hamlin. The parties met in Georgia, at the distance of 14 paces—at the first fire, Mr. Hamlin missed his antagonist, and Mr. Campbell's pistol snapped—but on the second fire Campbell was shot in the head, just above the right eye, and was instantly killed.—The Tallahassee bar met on the melancholy occasion of his death, passed resolutions expressive of their admiration of the talents, and attainments, and respect for the virtues of the deceased, and determined to wear the usual mourning for 90 days.

Little more than twelve months ago, Mr. Campbell was married, in this place, to a young lady, who, by this "fashionable murder," is left a widow, comparatively in a land of strangers. Campbell was a gentleman of fine talents, and in the prime of life, and was rising rapidly to distinction in the country which he had selected as his future residence, when he was thus suddenly cut off, a victim to the misnamed code of honor.—Lynchburgh Virginian.

How beautiful and exalted are the following sentiments of De Witt Clinton:

"Pleasure is a shadow; wealth is vanity; and power a pageant; but knowledge is extatic in enjoyment—perennial in fame—unlimited in space, and infinite in duration . . . . In the performance of its sacred offices, it fears no danger—spares no expense—omits no exertion. It scales the mountain—looks in the volcano—dives into the ocean—perforates the earth—wings its flight into the skies—enriches the globe—explores sea and land—contemplates the distant—examines the minute—comprehends the great—ascends to the sublime—no place too remote for its grasp—no heavens to exalted for its reach."

State Conventions.—The people of North Carolina and Tennessee have, by a majority of votes, decided to call conventions for the purpose of amending their respective state constitutions.

LATE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

LATEST FROM FRANCE & ENGLAND.

By Express, across Long Island, we have received, says the New York Daily Advertiser, the news by ship Poland, Captain Richardson, from Havre—she sailed on the 17th August. We are indebted to a passenger for papers of the 16th, and a file of London to the 14th August, inclusive.

From Havre papers of 16th.

The Government of Don Miguel has fixed itself at Leira, between Lisbon and Oporto, and had made no movement since Don Pedro entered Lisbon.

Up to the 28th Villa Flor had made no further movements; he is watching the army of Miguel, concentrated at Torres Vedra, and occupying all the shore north of Lisbon, and communicating with the troops besieging Oporto.

The Royal Swedish Board of Trade has declared Dordt, and all the harbors of South Holland, and London, and all places on the Thames, infected with the Cholera.

LONDON, 14th September.

By letters from Cuxhaven, dated the 8th, we learn that the English brig Exeter, Captain Viedler, bound from Hamburgh to Newfoundland, took fire in the hold. It was found necessary to scuttle the vessel, and let in two feet of water, by which means the greater part of the cargo was saved.

Dr. Franklin's Moral Code.—The great American philosopher and statesman, Benjamin Franklin, drew up the following list of moral virtues to which he paid constant and earnest attention, and thereby made himself a better and happier man.

Intemperance.—Eat not to fullness; drink not to elevation.

Silence.—Speak not but what may benefit others or yourself; avoid trifling conversation.

Order.—Let all your things have their places; let each part of your business have its time.

Resolution.—Resolve not to perform what you ought; perform what you resolve.

Frugality.—Make no expenses, but do good to others or yourself, that is, waste nothing.

Industry.—Lose no time; be always employed on something useful; cut off all unnecessary actions.

Sincerity.—Use no harmless deceit; think innocently and justly; and if you speak, speak accordingly.

Justice.—Wrong none by doing injuries, or omitting the benefits that are your duty.

Moderation.—Avoid extremes; forbear resenting injuries.

Cleanliness.—Suffer no uncleanliness in body, clothes, or habitation.

Tranquility.—Be not disturbed about trifles, or at accidents common or unavoidable.

Humility.—Imitate Jesus Christ.

An Albany paper mentions William L. Marcy, the present Governor of New York, as a candidate for the next Presidency. Gov. Marcy is said to be much superior to Martin Van Buren, and the most popular in that state.

A correspondent in the Baltimore Visiter, recommends as a specific for the fever and ague, a mixture composed of, 1st, a common nutmeg grated into a half pint tumbler; 2d, one gill of the best cider vinegar; and 3d, a fresh egg to incorporate them. This is to be taken when the chill commences; and is said to have cured, in one or two doses, many who had been suffering for months under this disagreeable complaint.

Dr. Franklin recommends a young man in the choice of a wife, to select her from a bunch, giving as his reason, that when there are many daughters they improve each other, and from emulation acquire more accomplishments, and know more, and do more than a single child, spoiled by parental fondness.

New President.—It has been proposed, by those who are casting about among the nullifiers for a President, that Mr. Leigh, of Virginia, be inducted into that office, after he is elected. We do not know what madman first proposed to look among the nullifiers for a President—he might as well have looked to the moon. No nullifier, or any one suspected of being such, will ever be the executive officer of the United States. Men of this political character can only rise amidst the "broken altars of our happy Union." The editor of the Kentucky Gazette speaks thus of this nomination: "Somebody talks of W. B. Leigh, of Virginia, for the Presidency. This is too bad. There would be no fun in beating him—Envoy extra to the court of Nullifiers. It would be like what the old soldier said of the starved beef in the army during the last war: "Why, sir," said he, speaking of a famished steer, "we had to hold him up, to knock him down."—Wilmington Adv.

A New Work for Farmers.—Lilly, Wait & Co., and G. C. Barrett, are preparing for immediate publication, The Complete Farmer and Rural Economist, forming a Compendious Epitome of the most important Branches of Agricultural and Rural Economy, by T. G. Fessenden, Editor of the New England Farmer. It is intended to form a Compendious Directory to the Farmer, Gardener, Florist, and Rural Economist, and to be so arranged that every article may be readily referred to. The first volume will be devoted to Agriculture, in its various branches, embracing the following topics: soils, grasses, grains, Indian corn, wheat, fences, manures, hemp, flax, neat cattle, horse, dairy, sheep, swine, poultry, woodland, &c. &c. The second volume will be devoted to Horticulture, in its various branches; also, Rural Economy, &c. The following being among the number of topics: garden, orchards, fruits, vine, hot beds, mulberry, silk, bees, insects, rural economy, &c., &c. The work will be comprized in two volumes, duodecimo, of between 350 and 400 pages. Price, one dollar a volume.—Boston Mer. Journal.

Remains of Napoleon.—Dr. Antommarchi has addressed the following letter, dated Paris, August 2, to the king of the French:

"Sire—When celebrating the anniversary of the three great days of July, your majesty heightened the enjoyment of the festival by the homage paid to the memory of the emperor Napoleon: but the feelings which dictated this august ceremony, will not be fully satisfied until the remains of this great man shall cease to repose in a foreign land—it belongs to your majesty to claim them from England. The success of your demand, sire, cannot be doubtful, and I offer myself to your majesty to go to St. Helena, to collect and bring back these glorious relics. I am, sire, with respect, &c.

F. ANTOMMARCHI.

Medecin de l'empereur Napoleon at St. Helene."

Postage to the British Provinces.—A letter from the Post Office Department to the Postmaster of this city, states that the requirement of demanding postage to be paid in advance, on newspapers and pamphlets mailed for places in British North America, (as per circular of Aug. 15) is applicable only to those addressed to places in the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and their dependencies. The arrangement heretofore made, for having the United States postage on newspapers and pamphlets collected in the Canadas, remains unaltered.—Balt. Pat.

The Truth Teller contains the proceedings of the "Association of the Friends of Ireland," at a meeting held in the city of New York on the 10th inst. It was eloquently addressed by Dr. Macneven, the president of the association, by Dr. Rice, and others. It was resolved to recommend to the friends of Ireland in America to commence the collection of a fund to promote the repeal of the union with England, and that it be at the disposal of Daniel O'Connell for that purpose. It was resolved also to address circulars to the respective similar associations throughout the U. States, informing them of the reorganization of the parent society, and requesitng their co-operation.

In reference to the beautiful exudation from the earth's surface, on the coast of Africa, the following anecdote of Com. B—— and Sir Niel Campbell, then governor of Sierra Leone, related to me by a friend on whose veracity I can implicitly rely, deserves to be recorded. I must premise, that it occurred during the rainy season, when these exhalations are much more dense than at present. Sir Niel sent an aid de camp on board early one morning to invite the commodore to breakfast at eight o'clock, who excused himself by saying that he made it an invariable rule on the coast of Africa not to land before ten. The messenger went on shore, and speedily returned with another message from the governor, saying, that as he was very anxious to see the commodore, he had put off breakfast until ten, and that he had gone to take a ride in the interim. There was no refusing this; and the cautious officer inquired in what direction Sir Neil rode. "To the westward," was the reply. "Then," said he, "I shall perhaps be able to show you why I do not leave the ship before the day is well advanced." The road which the governor had taken was, at that time, nearly parallel with the beach, by King Tom's Point, and only a short distance from it. Commodore B—— took the aid de camp to the gangway, and, after looking a little time, pointed out to him the governor's course by his hat and feather, the last of which was distinctly visible, waving over the sheet of mist that covered the ground, himself and his horse being completely enveloped in it. The young soldier expressed great astonishment at the singular phenomenon, and said he was sure that no one on shore was aware of the existence of so dense and dangerous an envelope. Not long after this, Sir Niel Campbell fell a victim to the climate.—Dr. Leonard's Voyage to the Slave Coast.

We hear that a rather ludicrous event occurred at the door of the Parish Church yesterday morning. A gallant young Lothario had rendered himself the uncontrolled master of a gay lady's heart, and with the consent of the parents of each, the day which was to unite two fond lovers in one flesh and bone, was eventually fixed upon. Yesterday they drove to church, there to seal their solemn vows; the lady high with hopes of matrimonial felicity. But that the "course of true love never runs smooth," and "there is many a slip between the cup and the lip," are old proverbs, the truth of which received a striking exemplification on this occasion. The youth, instead of approaching the altar of Hymen, sat down in an adjoining pew, and stated to his friends, to the utter astonishment of the bridal party, that he had lately changed his views with regard to matrimony.—Luckily, the intended bride was of strong nerves, and instead of falling into a fainting fit, as many in her situation would have done, she mustered up all her courage, and urged, both within the church, and without, under the porch, and through the Place d'Armes, her claims upon his affections, and stung his conscience with remorse in the contemplation of his perfidious conduct, should he refuse to make her his wedded wife. Such an appeal to his honor, urged in the strongest language of which female eloquence could make use, in such cases, was too powerful to be refused, and our Lothario, most gallantly taking the lady by the hand, declared himself ready for the sacrifice, and in a moment after he was kneeling by her side at the altar, where the matrimonial benediction was pronounced in due form.—Montreal paper.

Manganese.—It is perhaps not generally known that there has been discovered in the State of Vermont a mine or bed of Manganese, of a quality superior to the imported article. The manganese mine is in the town of Chittenden, Rutland county, 29 miles from the shore of Lake Champlain, and has been worked since 1826. The manganese is raised from the mine, cleansed from the earthy particles, ground in mills erected for that purpose, and is sent to the New York and other markets in barrels. It is understood that the New York Chemical Company are to be supplied with two hundred tons of this article the present season. The principal use of manganese is for making the chloride of lime or bleaching powders, and for glass. The price of the manganese is betweed 30 and $40 per ton in market.

We mention this as a single fact, tending to illustrate the influence of our canals in developing and bringing forth the resources of the country.—Argus.

Gov. Hamilton.—Gen. Hamilton, late Governor of S. Carolina, (says the Washington Examiner) has withdrawn from public life. In a conversation the other day, with a gentleman at Saratoga, he observed that he was done with public life, and that he intended to devote his time, in future, to the care and eduction of his children.

Gold region at the North.—It appears from a late Geological Report of Professor Hitchcock, published in the American Journal of Science, that Gold has been found in the Southern part of Vermont, and it is confidently expected that it will also be found in Massachusetts.

IMPORTANT.—We find the following in the New York Journal of Commerce, of Sept. 22:—

"Law of Notices.—It has been settled, by decisions, in England, that the announcement of a dissolution of copartnership, in a newspaper, is not alone sufficient to prevent a partner from binding the firm afterwards, in favor of other persons with whom the firm had been in the habit of dealing.—It is necessary to prove that such houses knew of the dissolution, in order to cut them off from holding all the partners by the signature of the firm, made after the dissolution. The same principle has been recognized in our own courts; though we believe an advertisement in a newspaper has been considered sufficient for all the subscribers or constant readers of that paper. As to all the world with whom the dissolved house had not been dealing, an advertisement in a newspaper of good circulation is sufficient. Most of our readers do not need to be informed of this point of law. But from the repeated inquiries made of us as to the legal requisites in announcing a dissolution, we presume there are some who do not know what is necessary.

It has been computed that nearly two years' sickness is experienced by every person before he is 70 years old, and therefore that ten days per annum is the average sickness of human life.—Till forty it is but half, and after fifty it rapidly increases.

The periodical, projected by Mr. Howard Payne, which is designed to amalgamate American and British literature—is spoken of, as likely to prove successful on both sides of the Atlantic. A union in letters, and spirit, and good fellowship is a "consummation devoutly to be wished."—American Sentinel.

Ernico Causici.—A correspondent of the Evening Post contains the following obituary notice of this eminent artist, who recently fell a victim to the cholera in Cuba, after an illness, it is said, of only fifteen minutes.

In the death of this man, the world has lost the favorite and most successful pupil of the renowned Canova, and the United States has been deprived of a man, who, by his genius, has done more towards the perpetuation of some of the interesting features of the history of our country than any other man in his department of art.

Causici executed the two basso relievos in the capitol at Washington, of Col. Boon and the Indians, and the Landing of the Pilgrims—he was the author and successful executor of the splendid monument of Washington, at Baltimore, and the traces of his masterly mind, and of his unrivalled chisel, are to be found in his recent bust of De Witt Clinton, in the City Hall of New York. In the agony of disappointed hopes and frustrated success, he left our shores for Cuba, but not before he had executed an inimitable model of the projected equestrian statue of Washington, intended for our Park, and we fear the loss is to a great degree irreparable. We learn that it was pretty well understood that he was to be the artist to execute this noble work, and the only consolation left is, that his prepared model was presented to Henry M. Western, Esq., of this city, previous to his departure, whom, we doubt not, will willingly afford its use to the Washington Monument Committee.

The intention of Causici was to return amongst us to perfect as well this great work, as also the unfinished trophies of the Monument at Baltimore.

But, alas! he has fallen a victim to this dire pestilence, and while we commiserate his fate, it is to pay to his memory this parting token of admiration and applause.—N. Y. Atlas.

A letter from Brassoria, Texas, of August 3d, informs us that the Cholera was more than usually fatal in that village. The number of deaths was forty out of a population of two hundred—one fifth!—Vicksburgh Register.

The Cooper Fund.—A benefit is in course of progress, in New York, to increase the Cooper fund, which began in this city in June last—by a benefit to that celebrated Tragedian. It appears to be countenanced by most of the literati of New York.—American Sentinel.

Names.—A young married lady in a town a few miles distant from this, had her first born christened "Paul Clifford." She saw the title probably on the back of the novel on the shelves of some Circulating Library, and deeming that Paul must be some worthy man, has tacked his cognomen to the surname of her infant. This is an honor Bulwer never dreamt of. Talking of names, we will record an amusing affair which happened "under Jefferson's administration." A gentleman in New Hampshire, anxious that some one of his descendants should be the President's namesake, was dreadfully disappointed during the six first years of Jefferson's administration by the birth of nothing but daughters. At length he swore in the violence of his patriotism that his next child should be called Thomas Jefferson, at all events. His next child was—another daughter! But faithful to his oath, he called her Thomas Jefferson—and Miss Thomas Jefferson B—— and her patriotic father are still living in New Hampshire. For the truth of this we can vouch.—Lowell Times.

THE LAND.

"I've been upon the moonlight deep,
When the wind had died away,
And, like an ocean god asleep,
The bark majestic lay;
But lovelier is the varied scene,—
The hill, the lake, the tree,
When bathed in light of Midnight's queen—
The land! the land for me!

The glancing waves I've glided o'er,
When gently blew the breeze;
But sweeter was the distant shore—
The zephyr 'mong the trees,
The murmur of the mountain rill,
The blossoms waving free,
The song of birds on every hill—
The land! the land for me!

The billows I have been among,
When they roll'd in mountains dark,
And night her blackest curtain hung
Around our heaving bark;
But give me, when the storm is fierce,
My home and fireside glee,
Where winds may howl, but dare not pierce—
The land! the land for me!

And when around the lightning flashed,
I've been upon the deep;
And to the gulf beneath I've dashed
Adown the liquid steep;
But now, that I am safe on shore,
There ever let me be;
The sea let others wander o'er—
The land! the land for me!"

DOCTOR J. B. ROSE,

DENTIST,

(LATE OF REGENT STREET, LONDON,)

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Pittsburgh and its vicinity, that he has taken an office, No. 80 Third street, next door to Dr. Burrell, where he performs all operations on the Teeth and Gums, in a style not to be surpassed.

☞ Natural and Artificial Teeth set in the best manner, and at the most reasonable charges.—Also—Porcelain Teeth, from a single one to a whole set.

On the first appearance of Tarter or Scurvy, Teeth should always be cleansed, as the corrosion of the tarter will, in a short time, reach the roots of the Teeth, and they will eventually fall out—when, by attending to them in season, they might be restored, at a trifling expense, to their original beauty.

The operation of Plugging and Filing the Teeth, when decayed, is so truly important that it is impossible to recommend it too earnestly to the attention of the public. Thousands of the most useful Teeth, which otherwise, on account of their painfulness, would be sacrificed by extraction, may thus be preserved for many years. Doctor R., convinced that he can render benefits beyond all price to those who need his assistance, will wait upon families at their residence, if requested, and Teeth brought to a Pearl White at one sitting.

☞ As Dr. R. intends to remain in town but a short time, as early a call as convenient is advisable.

Dr. R. has for sale the British Antisceptic Dentrifice. This elegant Tooth Wash, with a very little use, eradicates the Scurvy in Gums, and prevents the accumulation of Tarter, which not only blackens, but loosens the Teeth, and accelerates their decay; removes the causes of offensive breath, preserves the healthiness of the Gums, and renders the Teeth beautifully white. Price 50 cents per Bottle.

The Theologian, the Farmer, the Philosopher, the Sportsman, and even the Plough Boy, has each his Journal, where he can find a record of the passing events of the day, connected with his peculiar avocations and recreations. Hitherto, the Mechanics (who form a large and most important portion of the community) have had no Journal, to which they could turn, with the certainty of finding that information they desire, no periodical of which they could say: 'This is ours, and for us.' In the hope that the attempt to supply such a want at a price so reasonable as to be within the reach of all, will meet with your active support, the subscriber proposes to publish, on the first day of each month, a Mechanics' Magazine. It will contain a well digested selection of the most useful and interesting articles in the London Mechanics' Magazine, London Register of Arts and Sciences, Repertory of Inventions, Library of Useful Knowledge, Journal of the Franklin Institute, and other works, connected with the arts and manufactures, published in this country and in Europe, accompanied with numerous and well executed Engravings. Its pages will be open for the communications of all, and especially for those of the practical artisan, to whose interest it will be particularly devoted. The Mechanics' Magazine will contain, also, a due portion of the occurrences of the month, Scientific and Literary Reviews of Books, Anecdotes, Economical Receipts, Reports of the state of Mechanics' Institutions, and other Scientific Societies in this state and other countries. To be published monthly. Each succeeding number will contain 64 pages, handsomely printed, and stitched in a neat cover. DOCTOR ROBERT'S
☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,
From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.
Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradully increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in all cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
